

Information architecture

Will be a simple structure of the page

Interaction design (IXD)

- Company logo will bring user to the 'Home' page as well they can choose from bar on the top.
- Each page will have the same header and only content will change.
- Each navigation button will change when roll on them.
- Each social media buttons will change when roll on them and they will open in different page.